Paul Dallenbach

“The thing I like about Mianna Wick is her drive and passion for the sport...”

David Hoffpauir

“Mianna Wick is the next Danica Patrick. She’s a very aggressive driver but does not put other people in jeopardy when she’s aggressive...she sees in slow motion when she drives...that’s because their processor runs faster by a factor of 10 over what most people see and they operate at such a high level.”

Donnie Graves

“Mianna Wick has a likable determination...Mianna’s a person of faith and it shows up in everything that she does.”

“Off the track, Mianna Wick is a marketer or sponsor’s dream...”

-Glenn Conser

Havana Cruz and Poker Run

is excited to have Mianna Wick attending their 2016 event. Mianna is a very driven woman in high demand this season. She will be racing her IndyCar in the HAWK at Road America this July, while she will have previously attended May’s Indy 500. Mianna states “I want to reach out and make my career more than just ‘what needs done to make it to professional level’” (creating more than just an “empty autograph”). “That’s the only way this will work” says Mianna. Having someone who is not only dedicated to driving and good at what they do, but also someone who creates a “warm-hearted” feeling for the public, makes all of the difference. Havana Cruz and Poker Run and Mianna’s partnership creates an addictive environment that you won’t be able to get enough of.
